

(PALS)TILLICUM CREEK WATERSHED RESTORATION PROJECT

Project Type Other

Lead ImplementerU.S. Forest ServiceFundersWashington State

Other Contributing North Central Washington Forest Health Collaborative, Washington State Department of

Organizations Natural Resources, Yakama Nation: Confederated Tribes and Bands

Primary Contact Andy Hart (andrew.hart@usda.gov)

Project Stage Implementation

Duration 2018 - 2024

Other

Activities include small tree thinning, pruning, handpiling, prescribed burning, shaded fuel break construction, closing roads, decommission roads, improve/upgrade roads on the Okanogan-Wenatchee National Forest.

Key Accomplishments

Accomplishments to be provided upon completion of Project Project Themes

- HB 1168 Account State-Funded Projects
- Wildfire Mitigation
- Use of Good Neighbor Authority
- Watershed Resilience

Tillicum Landscape Perspective - Annotated

Location

Expenditures

No expenditures provided

Photos

Before

Osborne Panoramas from Sugarloaf Peak looking North in 1934 - Outline added

Tillicum Unit 28 Aerial Photo Pre-Treatment

During

Contract crew implementing fuels reduction in the Tillicum project. October 2022.

2022 thinning activity in Tillicum project

After

Tillicum Unit 28 Aerial Photo Post-Treatment

Tillicum Unit 27 Aerial Photo Post Treatment