

(PALS)TILLICUM CREEK WATERSHED RESTORATION PROJECT

Project Type Integrated forest health project

Lead Implementer U.S. Forest Service

Other Contributing North Central Washington Forest Health Collaborative, Washington State Department of Organizations

Natural Resources, Yakama Nation: Confederated Tribes and Bands

Primary Contact Andy Hart (andrew.hart@usda.gov)

Project Stage Implementation

2016 - ? Duration

Integrated forest health project

Activities include small tree thinning, pruning, handpiling, prescribed burning, shaded fuel break construction, closing roads, decommission roads, improve/upgrade roads on the Okanogan-Wenatchee National Forest.

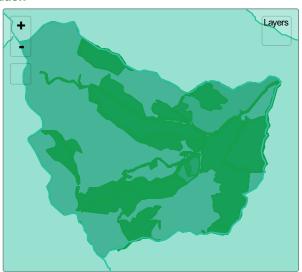

Project Themes

- HB 1168 Account State-Funded Projects
- Wildfire Mitigation
- Use of Good Neighbor Authority
- Watershed Resilience

Tillicum Landscape Perspective - Annotated

Location

Photos

Before

Osborne Panoramas from Sugarloaf Peak looking North in 1934 - Outline added

Tillicum Unit 28 Aerial Photo Pre-Treatmen

During

Contract crew implementing fuels reduction in the Tillicum project. October 2022.

2022 thinning activity in Tillicum project

After

Tillicum Unit 28 Aerial Photo Post-Treatment

Tillicum Unit 27 Aerial Photo Post Treatment